I am proud to call myself a Spotsylvania native, Marine Corps veteran, and local business owner. Throughout my life, I have been heavily involved in our community, dedicating my time and efforts to its betterment. This commitment has led me to serve on various influential boards, such as the Economic Development Authority, and currently as the Planning Commission Chairman.

With my proven leadership and experience, I am confident I am the ideal candidate. I pledge to continue working tirelessly for the betterment of our Chancellor District on the Board of Supervisors. To learn more about my qualifications, goals, and vision for our community, I invite you to visit my website at: Childress4Chancellor.com.
